

February quotes – Prayer

February 1. If the only prayer you said was thank you that would be enough.

Meister Eckhart

February 2. The function of prayer is not to influence God, but rather to change the nature of the one who prays.

Soren Kierkegaard

February 3. Forgive me my nonsense as I also forgive the nonsense of those who think they talk sense.

Robert Frost

February 4. You pray in your distress and in your need; would that you might pray also in the fullness of your joy and in your days of abundance.

Kahlil Gibran

February 5. The inner voice is something which cannot be described in words. But sometimes we have a positive feeling that something in us prompts us to do a certain thing. The time when I learnt to recognize this voice was, I may say, the time when I started praying regularly.

Mahatma Gandhi

February 6. Make me sympathetic without being sentimental, helpful but not bossy. Let me discover merits where I had not expected them, and talents in people whom I had not thought to possess any. And, Lord, give me the grace to tell them so.

Margot Benary-Isbert

February 7. The wise man in the storm prays God not for safety from danger but for deliverance from fear.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

February 8. O heavenly Father, protect and bless all things that have breath: guard them from all evil and let them sleep in peace.

Albert Schweitzer

February 9. The real “work” of prayer is to become silent and listen to the voice that says good things about me. To gently push aside and silence the many voices that question my goodness and to trust that I will hear the voice of blessing—that demands real effort.

Henri J.M. Nouwen

February 10. It is better in prayer to have a heart without words than words without a heart.

Mahatma Gandhi

February 11. I don't really want to be witnessed talking to the catbirds or hugging the old black oak tree. I have my way of praying, as you no doubt have yours.

Mary Oliver

February 12. Writing is prayer.

Franz Kafka

February 13. The Ego is a veil between humans and God. In prayer all are equal.

Rumi

February 14. The world is my church. My actions are my prayer. My behavior is my creed.
Steve Maraboli

February 15. I read a poem every night, as others read a prayer.
Tahar Ben Jelloun

February 16. For the children around the world without a home, say a prayer tonight.
Third Day

February 17. Two hands working can do more than a thousand clasped in prayer.
Author Unknown

February 18. To be present is to be prayerful.
Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh

February 19. Under certain circumstances, profanity provides a relief denied even to prayer.
Mark Twain

February 20. To give pleasure to a single heart by a single act is better than a thousand heads bowing in prayer.
Mahatma Gandhi

February 21. Prayer does not use up artificial energy, doesn't burn up any fossil fuel, doesn't pollute. Neither does song, neither does love, neither does the dance.
Margaret Mead

February 22. The most eloquent prayer is the prayer through hands that heal and bless.
Billy Graham

February 23. Arranging a bowl of flowers in the morning can give a sense of quiet in a crowded day – like writing a poem or saying a prayer.
Anne Morrow Lindbergh

February 24. Prayer is a thought, a belief, a feeling, arising within the mind of the one praying.
Ernest Holmes

February 25. An authentic life is the most personal form of worship. Everyday life has become my prayer.
Sarah Ban Breathnach

February 26. We should not permit prayer to be taken out of the schools; that's the only way most of us got through.
Sam Levenson

February 27. I don't know whether I believe in God or not. I think, really, I'm some sort of Buddhist. But the essential thing is to put oneself in a frame of mind which is close to that of prayer.
Henri Matisse

February 28. You carry Mother Earth within you. She is not outside of you. Mother Earth is not just your environment. In that insight of inter-being, it is possible to have real communication with the Earth, which is the highest form of prayer. Thich Nhat Hanh
