

Evil quotes -- March

March 1. The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.
Edmund Burke

March 2. The world is a dangerous place to live, not because of the people who are evil, but because of the people who don't do anything about it.
Albert Einstein

March 3. I object to violence because when it appears to do good, the good is only temporary; the evil it does is permanent.
Mahatma Gandhi

March 4. If only it were all so simple! If only there were evil people somewhere insidiously committing evil deeds, and it were necessary only to separate them from the rest of us and destroy them. But the line dividing good and evil cuts through the heart of every human being. And who is willing to destroy a piece of his own heart?
Aleksandr I. Solzhenitsyn

March 5. If you try to cure evil with evil you will add more pain to your fate.
Sophocles

March 6. Imaginary evil is romantic and varied; real evil is gloomy, monotonous, barren, boring. Imaginary good is boring; real good is always new, marvelous, intoxicating.
Simone Weil

March 7. Never open the door to a lesser evil, for other and greater ones invariably slink in after it.
Baltasar Gracián

March 8. Remember that all through history, there have been tyrants and murderers, and for a time, they seem invincible. But in the end, they always fall. Always.
Mahatma Gandhi

March 9. When people see some things as beautiful, other things become ugly. When people see some things as good, other things become bad.
Lao-Tzu

March 10. Tolerance becomes a crime when applied to evil.
Thomas Mann

March 11. The reason for evil in the world is that people are not able to tell their stories.
C.G. Jung

March 12. There is an old illusion. It is called good and evil.
Friedrich Nietzsche

March 13. When we forgive evil we do not excuse it, we do not tolerate it, we do not smother it. We look the evil full in the face, call it what it is, let its horror shock and stun and enrage us, and only then do we forgive it.
Lewis B. Smedes

March 14. When one with honeyed words but evil mind persuades the mob, great woes befall the state.
Euripides,

March 15. War may sometimes be a necessary evil. But no matter how necessary, it is always an evil, never a good. We will not learn to live together in peace by killing each other's children.
Jimmy Carter

March 16. Ultimately evil is done not so much by evil people, but by good people who do not know themselves and who do not probe deeply.
Reinhold Niebuhr

March 17. I became convinced that noncooperation with evil is as much a moral obligation as is cooperation with good.
Martin Luther King Jr.

March 18. An insincere and evil friend is more to be feared than a wild beast; a wild beast may wound your body, but an evil friend will wound your mind.
Buddha

March 19. We must develop and maintain the capacity to forgive. He who is devoid of the power to forgive is devoid of the power to love. There is some good in the worst of us and some evil in the best of us. When we discover this, we are less prone to hate our enemies.
Martin Luther King, Jr.

March 20. False words are not only evil in themselves, but they infect the soul with evil.
Socrates

March 21. There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root.
Henry David Thoreau

March 22. Boredom is the root of all evil - the despairing refusal to be oneself.
Soren Kierkegaard

March 23. Whatever is done for love always occurs beyond good and evil.
Friedrich Nietzsche

March 24. I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. This is why right, temporarily defeated, is stronger than evil triumphant.

March 25. It is a man's own mind, not his enemy or foe, that lures him to evil ways.
Buddha

March 26. Apathy is the glove in which evil slips its hand.
Anonymous

March 27. The evil that is in the world almost always comes of ignorance, and good intentions may do as much harm as malevolence if they lack understanding.

Albert Camus, The Plague

March 28. Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from a religious conviction.

Blaise Pascal

March 29. It is much easier at all times to prevent an evil than to rectify mistakes.

George Washington

March 30. I happen to think that the singular evil of our time is prejudice. It is from this evil that all other evils grow and multiply. In almost everything I've written there is a thread of this: a man's seemingly palpable need to dislike someone other than himself.

Rod Serling

March 31. Evil lurks in the heart of man, and anonymity tends to bring it out. Internet flammers would never say the jagged things they do if they had to sign their names.

Garrison Keillor
