

Hope Quotes December 2014

December 1. Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is not to stop questioning. Albert Einstein

December 2. We must accept finite disappointment, but never lose infinite hope. Martin Luther King, Jr.

December 3. Hope is important because it can make the present moment less difficult to bear. If we believe that tomorrow will be better, we can bear a hardship today. Thich Nhat Hanh

December 4. Hope lies in dreams, in imagination, and in the courage of those who dare to make dreams into reality. Jonas Salk

December 5. Three grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for. Joseph Addison

December 6. My great hope is to laugh as much as I cry, to get my work done and try to love somebody and have the courage to accept the love in return. Maya Angelou

December 7. Hope is a waking dream. Aristotle

December 8. Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all the darkness. Desmond Tutu

December 9. Let your hopes, not your hurts, shape your future. Robert H. Schuller

December 10. Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul – and sings the tune without the words – and never stops at all. Emily Dickinson

December 11. We have always held to the hope, the belief, the conviction that there is a better life, a better world, beyond the horizon. Franklin D. Roosevelt

December 12. I find hope in the darkest of days, and focus in the brightest. I do not judge the universe. Dalai Lama

December 13. Do not spoil what you have by desiring what you have not; remember that what you now have was once among the things you only hoped for.
Epicurus

December 14. The human heart has hidden treasures, in secret kept, in silence sealed; the thoughts, the hopes, the dreams, the pleasures, whose charms were broken if revealed.
Charlotte Bronte

December 15. You are never given the wish without also being given the power to make it come true. You may have to work for it, however.
Richard Bach

December 16. Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope and confidence.
Helen Keller

December 17. Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow them.
Louisa May Alcott

December 18. In all things it is better to hope than to despair. Goethe

December 19. Hope is both the earliest and the most indispensable virtue inherent in the state of being alive. If life is to be sustained hope must remain, even where confidence is wounded, trust impaired. Erik H. Erikson

December 20. Hope is the dream of a waking man. Diogenes

December 21. A feeble man can see the farms that are fenced and tilled, the houses that are built. The strong man sees the possible houses and farms. His eye makes estates as fast as the sun breeds clouds.
Ralph Waldo Emerson

December 22. Man can only become what he is able to consciously imagine, or to 'image forth'.
Dane Rudhyar

December 23. Most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no hope at all.
Dale Carnegie

December 24. If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost, that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them.

Henry David Thoreau

December 25. Hope anchors the soul.

Hebrews 6:19

December 26. When you're depressed, the whole body is depressed, and it translates to the cellular level. The first objective is to get your energy up, and you can do it through play. It's one of the most powerful ways of breaking up hopelessness and bringing energy into the situation.

O. Carl Simonton

December 27. Walk on with hope in your heart and you'll never walk alone.

Oscar Hammerstein II

December 28. Listen to the mustn'ts, child. Listen to the don'ts. Listen to the shouldn'ts, the impossibles, the won'ts. Listen to the never haves, then listen close to me—Anything can happen, child. Anything can be.

Shel Silverstein

December 29. I believe that imagination is stronger than knowledge. That myth is more potent than history. That dreams are more powerful than facts. That hope always triumphs over experience. That laughter is the only cure for grief. And I believe that love is stronger than death. Robert Fulghum

December 30.

Hold fast to dreams,
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird,
That cannot fly.

Langston Hughes

December 31. Hope smiles from the threshold of the year to come, whispering "it will be happier"....

Alfred Tennyson
