

Faith Quotes – December 2015

December 1.

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase.

Martin Luther King, Jr.

December 2. The way to see by faith is to shut the eye of reason.

Unknown

December 3. Hope is hearing the melody of the future. Faith is to dance to it.

Rubem A. Alves

December 4. I was taught to strive not because there were any guarantees of success but because the act of striving is in itself the only way to keep faith with life.

Madeleine Albright

December 5. Faith allows things to happen. It is the power that comes from a fearless heart. And when a fearless heart believes, miracles happen.

Unknown

December 6. Sometimes faith means living without having all the answers...

zoka

December 7. Faith is still believing the best in all, after having seen the worst in some.

T. Rocco

December 8. Faith is daring the soul to go beyond what the eyes can see.

Anonymous

December 9. Faith is to believe what you do not see; the reward of this faith is to see what you believe.

Saint Augustine

December 10. You must not lose faith in humanity. Humanity is like an ocean; if a few drops of the ocean are dirty, the ocean does not become dirty.

Mahatma Gandhi

December 11. I am fundamentally an optimist. Whether that comes from nature or nurture, I cannot say. Part of being optimistic is keeping one's head pointed toward the sun, one's feet moving forward. There were many dark moments when my faith in humanity was sorely tested, but I would not and could not give myself up to despair. That way lays defeat and death.

Nelson Mandela

December 12. Believe in a love that is being stored up for you like an inheritance, and have faith that in this love there is a strength and a blessing so large that you can travel as far as you wish without having to step outside it.
Rainer Maria Rilke

December 13. When you see the end of all the light you know and it's time to step into the darkness of the unknown, faith is knowing that one of two things shall happen: either you will be given something solid to stand on, or you will be taught how to fly.
Edward Teller

December 14. Follow your bliss and the universe will open doors for you where there were only walls.
Joseph Campbell

December 15. Faith consists in believing when it is beyond the power of reason to believe.
Voltaire

December 16. Faith is not something to grasp, it is a state to grow into.
Mahatma Gandhi

December 17. You do not need to know precisely what is happening, or exactly where it is all going. What you need is to recognize the possibilities and challenges offered by the present moment, and embrace them with courage, faith and hope.
Thomas Merton

December 18. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
King James Bible

December 19. Doubt isn't the opposite of faith; it is an element of faith.
Paul Tillich

December 20. Faith is the bird that feels the light and sings when the dawn is still dark.
Rabindranath Tagore

December 21. There lives more faith in honest doubt, believe me, than in half the creeds.
Alfred Tennyson

December 22. If it can be verified, we don't need faith...Faith is for that which lies on the other side of reason. Faith is what makes life bearable, with all its tragedies and ambiguities and sudden, startling joys.

Madeleine L'Engle

December 23. Faith is an oasis in the heart which will never be reached by the caravan of thinking.

Kahlil Gibran

December 24. Writing is an act of faith, not a trick of grammar.

E. B. White

December 25. Faith is universal. Our specific methods for understanding it are arbitrary. Some of us pray to Jesus, some of us go to Mecca, some of us study subatomic particles. In the end we are all just searching for truth, that which is greater than ourselves.

Dan Brown

December 26. Faith and science, I have learned, are two sides of the same coin, separated by an expanse so small, but wide enough that one side can't see the other. They don't know they are connected.

Mary E. Pearson

December 27. Faith in oneself is the best and safest course.

Michelangelo

December 28. Even the merest gesture is holy if it is filled with faith.

Franz Kafka

December 29. Faith is a knowledge within the heart, beyond the reach of proof.

Kahlil Gibran

December 30. Faith and doubt are both needed – not as antagonists, but working side by side to take us around the unknown curve.

Lillian Smith

December 31. Faith is a passionate intuition.

William Wordsworth
